

SHOT DEAD IN A ROW

A Young Tennesseean Murdered in the Streets.

LAID LOW BY A RIVAL IN LOVE

John T. Carter is Involuntarily a Quaker and Killed by Edward Turpin.

GALLATIN, Tenn., Feb. 17.—William M. Carter, eldest son of John T. Carter, a well-known farmer and blood-horse breeder, was shot Thursday afternoon and killed by Edward B. Turpin, a resident of the place. Immediately previous to the killing the parties were sitting in chairs in front of adjacent stores, when Turpin applied a vile epithet to Carter, who started to strike him. As he got within a few yards of Turpin and after a few words the latter fired at him. It is said, through his own pocket, when he had his revolver exposed, the ball plowing into the pavement. Carter turned to escape, when Turpin fired into his back, and as Carter ran from the store he was in rapid succession, and at the last report Carter fell on the street, clutching on his hands. Friendly hands carried him into Turpin's drug store, where he died in about twenty minutes.

Women in the Gun.

There were ominous indications of mob revenge, many of the leading citizens of the town favoring a violent punishment of the brutal affair, but better judgment prevailed and the prisoner will not be molested until the law takes its action. Jesse Moore, a well-known young man and constable, was arrested and is in jail as an accessory. A personal altercation between Moore and Carter a few minutes before the shooting led to the affair and it is charged that Turpin and Moore had conspired to take his life. The cause of this dreadful ending of a young man's life is the same old tale. Carter had incurred their jealousy by his attentions to two respectable young ladies.

It was to be signed by the American minister in London and by the British minister in Washington so that there might be no unnecessary delay. It is expected now that the treaty will go to the senate next week. The statement is made that the governments of France, Italy and Sweden, which are to name the neutral arbitrators, have been sounded on the subject and have made known their willingness to do so.

AMNESTY FOR MORMONS.

The President Likely to Pardon Forgiveness for Past Offenses.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—One of the subjects discussed at the cabinet meeting Tuesday was general amnesty for Mormons. The Mormon leaders are profuse with promises of obedience to the law if general amnesty is extended for past offenses, and it is urged by the anti-Mormons in favor of amnesty that polygamy has been abandoned by the church and that no further violations of the law need be feared. The president is said to be favorably inclined toward the proposition, and while no determination was reached it is thought that a general amnesty proclamation is quite probable.

Two additional cases were reported here Tuesday. The total number of cases detained is eighty-six. City Physician Meyer had the man removed to the pest house and instituted a search of the Italian boarding houses, hoping to find the sick man's companions.

A SPECIAL MESSAGE.

The President Calls the Attention of Congress to the Necessity of Legislation for the Protection of Miners.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The following is the text of a message transmitted to congress Tuesday by the president:

"There was passed by the last congress an act for the protection of the lives of the miners in the territories, which was approved by me on the 3d day of March, 1891. That no appropriation was made to enable me to carry the act into effect resulted, I suppose, from the fact that it was passed so late in the session. The law recognizes the necessity of a responsible public inspection and supervision of the business of mining in the territories, and is in line with the legislation of most of the states. The work of the miner has its unavoidable incidents of discomfort and danger, and these should not be increased by the negligence of the owners to provide every practicable safety appliance. Economies which involve a sacrifice of human life are intolerable. I transmit herewith memorials from several hundred miners working in the coal mines in the Indian territory asking for the appointment of an inspector under the act referred to. The recent frightful disaster at Krebs, in that territory, in which sixty-seven miners met a horrible death, gives urgency to this appeal, and I recommend that a special appropriation be at once made for the salaries and necessary expenses of the inspectors provided for in the law."

THIRD PARTY CONFERENCE.

The Attendance at St. Louis Expected to Be Much Larger Than Anticipated.

LOUIS, Feb. 17.—Up to this time ten reform and industrial organizations have notified the executive committee of the so-called third party conference, to be held in St. Louis beginning Monday of next week, of their intention of being officially represented. Station of farms and shovels from $20,000 to $120,000. Senator Peffer's amendment was voted down and the bill passed.

SLAVES NO LONGER.

Convention of Men Who Have Been Kicked Out of the House.

DURHAM, Ill., Feb. 17.—There were two very pretty fights in the convention Tuesday. Delegates to the Bichloride of Gold clubs of the world divided first on the question of admitting splenoregians to membership in their organization, and second, over the election of a secretary. The Banner of Gold, the newspaper just established by Col. Nate Reed, of Chicago, was declared the official organ of the association, and Mr. Mr. Davis was induced as a lecturer to the various subordinate clubs.

Directly after dinner the committee on constitution and by-laws reported, and after the first reading the sections were taken up and discussed separately. No opposition was developed until the secretary read the motion which recites that no man shall ever become a member of a Bichloride of Gold club unless he shall have first been cured by the Keely remedies; that no man shall be admitted who has been cured and then relapsed; that no man shall be admitted who is connected in any way with the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors. After a lengthy discussion the latter clause was allowed to stand and the constitution was adopted.

A permanent organization was effected by the election of officers, as follows:

President, S. R. Moore, of Pittsburgh; first vice president, W. A. Arnold, of Dwight; second vice president, Frank F. Clark, of Missouri; secretary and treasurer, J. B. Kehon, of Kentucky.

The convention of the league will be held the second Tuesday in October at a place to be selected by the directors.

FREE COINAGE BLOCKED.

Filibustering in the House Against the Bland Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The donations of the western farmers and millers to the starving millions of Russia have at last served one practical purpose. They served as a bludgeon to the gold men of the house of representatives Tuesday to oppose for five hours the steady march of the lower house toward free coinage legislation. The anti-free coinage men are congratulating themselves on having won a victory in the first preliminary skirmish.

Mr. Tracy (N. Y.) led the fight against the consideration of the resolution authorizing the transportation of the food donations to the starving Russians, but he did it not so much because he was opposed to the spirit of the resolution as because he desired to keep as many measures as possible on the calendar as unfinished business and in the way of the Bland free-coinage bill. Under the rules of the house if the Bland bill should not be disposed of within two days after being reached in the order of consideration it would pass to the calendar as unfinished business. It is the plan of Mr. Tracy and his followers to filibuster against measures in order to prevent the free-coinage bill ever being reached on that calendar and passed by the house. It is not unlikely, however, that the disclosure of their plan of campaign may have the effect of causing the free coinage men to force a vote on the Bland bill, when it is reached, before the expiration of the two days and before it can pass to the calendar of unfinished business.

LOST ON THE HIGH SEAS.

The British Bark Cavour Believed to Have Gone Down in the Storm on the Irish Coast.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—The loss to shipping during the storm of the last two days has been very heavy. The extent of it cannot be known as the reports from the coasts, owing to the prostration of the wires, are very meager. The British bark Cavour, it is believed, has been lost off Roundstone on the Irish coast. Fragments of the wreck have come ashore marked "Cavour, Grenock." A box of books marked "S. F. H. Y." has been picked up. A large vessel, timber-laden, has drifted ashore, bottom up, near the same point, and fishermen just come in report that they saw the body of a woman in the water.

To Stop Pension Abuse.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Mr. Dickerson (Ky.) introduced in the house Tuesday a resolution reciting that, while it is the policy and purpose of the government and congress to provide liberal means for the comfortable subsistence of honorably discharged soldiers who are indigent and incapacitated, pensions should not be paid to persons having large estates, who are able bodied, who own estates, or who hold federal, state, county or municipal offices.

Will Be Nominations.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The house committee on military affairs has adopted a resolution providing for the reappointment of Gen. J. L. Mitchell, of Wisconsin; Gen. W. J. Sewall, of New Jersey, and Gen. A. I. McMahon, of New York, at the expiration of their terms as members of the board of managers of national homes for disabled volunteer soldiers.

Proposed Vote for Senators.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—In the house on Tuesday Mr. Tucker (Va.), from the committee on elections of president, vice president and members of congress, reported a joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment for the election of senators by the people of the several states. Referred to the house calendar.

Dame Fashion's Debut!

SHE WILL HOLD A GRAND RECEPTION TO THE LADIES AT SPRING & COMPANY'S THIS WEEK.

Many Guarded Secrets to be Exposed. Six Days of Reveling Among the New Spring Fashions.

Now that our Embroidery Department has settled down to its regular 3-11 gait and the days of winter pass into the days of spring, we cannot wait longer to throw wide open the doors and ask you to be our personal guest during a grand six days feast beginning MONDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 18. We have provided the most delightful menu ever conjured by the fashions caterers.

This Week, Three Sumptuous Courses!

NEW SILKS, NEW DRESS GOODS, NEW CARPETS.

Everything shown will sparkle with the dew and fragrance of early spring.

Our Rich New Silks.

Dame Fashion decrees silks for the ladies this season and has supplied us in great abundance with a rare assortment of new silks for 1902, comprising all the beautiful colorings, artistic designs, and new weaves; silks from every silk producing center of the world. Fully three-fourths of our silks were contracted for before they were put into the looms. The manufacturers gave us first choice of printings and damasks and confined these selections exclusively to us. We enjoy this privilege because we are large and desirable customers, and you receive the benefit because your dress cannot be duplicated elsewhere. We shall display hundreds of exquisite novelties in the most superb colorings, such as India Twills in figured effects, Japanese or Fanyau wash silks, Habutai silks, Printed India silks, beautiful productions in wavy effects which remind one of the ebb and flow of the tide. Silks in glaze and changeable effects. One pretty novelty is the French feather pattern brought out in black and colored silks.

Rare Novelties.

Another entirely new idea this spring in figured silks is the changeable figure, the ground being unchangeable. This is a delightful novelty, and will be very popular. We cannot describe them; they are equal in art to the sweet melodies of Mozart or the dreamy rhapsodies of Liszt. We must not contaminate these exquisite goods by mentioning price; you will be happily surprised and satisfied in that respect.

Fashionable Dress Goods.

We believe that we have as fine attractions in new spring dress goods as can be found in America. Fabrics designed and made by canny Scotchmen, artistic Frenchmen, enterprising Englishmen, ingenious Germans and ambitious Yankees, such fabrics as have been accepted by the fashion leaders of Paris and London and must be by the ladies of Grand Rapids. It is simply impossible to give a full review of the various styles and textures in vogue for spring wear. It would set your head in a whirl if we tried to describe them all. Suffice it to say we have opened for this week.

Car Loads of New Goods.

To many it may seem early in the season to open a full line of spring goods, but as we buy these goods early in order to secure exclusive designs and styles, we consider it advantageous to our many patrons to make an equally early display.

The Spring Season

Introduces a considerable change in dress goods, especially as to colorings and styles. The lighter shades prevail as never before and figured designs and chevron effects are very prominent. In a few words we need only say our Monday opening will consist of wool fabrics in nankeen styles and shades from the lowest price of American productions to more elaborate weaves of French and German fabrics.

The New Shades

Of pale green, chamois brown, soft gray, India red, beige, tan and new blues are among the more attractive colors. These are found in plain and fancy Bedford cords, chevrons, cheffrons, henriettes, diagonals and many other styles. We will show the American novelties in great variety of styles from 30c to 75c. In passing, glance at our show windows and do not fail to visit the dress goods counter.

Opening of New Carpets.

Our Carpet and Drapery departments will claim a well deserved share of attention and admiration this week, for we have never had or even seen a stock to equal our present accumulation. We control the designs shown and they are exclusively our own in every grade. This we can say of curtains and rugs. We realize that we are

The Fashion Center

Of Grand Rapids and must have all the goods and all the novelties. Manufacturers know this and always try to place their finest productions with us first. Our business in this department is so large that we buy everything in great quantities at jobbers rates. They come to us direct from the creators, thus we get the cream and are able to sell at prices asked for inferior goods elsewhere else.

A Few New Styles.

New carpets have been pouring in upon us for months. A large number of private patterns in Egyptian, Armenian and Lowell body Brussels have been received; they are truly the most beautiful and artistic ever shown here. Then we have Kidderminster ingrain with borders to match in new designs and colorings, in effect equal to Brussels; they are beautiful and wide, and while they greatly resemble Brussels, they cost to furnish a room is much less.

Another Fine Value

In our "gold medal brand" ingrain, we have just this carpet for ten years and warrant every yard. These styles and effects are similar to Brussels. Surrounding here to be found in a first-class carpet and drapery store will be shown this week.

HUSBANDS, IF YOU MISS YOUR WIFE, DON'T WORRY. You men, would you meet your sweethearts? They will all be found at our Grand Opening of New Spring Silks, Dress Goods and Carpets beginning MONDAY MORNING.
